New York, N.Y., May 23, 2024 | Project Gallery is pleased to present Gitte Maria Möller: Running away forever a solo exhibition featuring 18 works by South African, New York based artist Gitte Maria Möller.

Gitte Maria Möller (b. 1991, Cape Town, South Africa) is a painter, multi-disciplinary artist and pre-school teacher. She received her BAFA from the Michaelis School of Fine Art in 2015 and has exhibited internationally across the USA, UK, Europe and South Africa. She lives and works in New York City.

"These paintings and drawings were made over the last 5 years moving between Cape Town and New York City. I spend a lot of time alone so I inevitably end up thinking about attachments when I make my work; to objects, people and places. My internal monologue can be very tyrannical, and I need to consciously pour a lot of softness, flexibility and patience into my work and life. My art teaches me how to do this by creating peaceful moments in my day and helping me enjoy my solitude. My paintings and drawings are my children and my friends." — Gitte Maria Möller

Project Gallery (est. 2020) is an online art gallery based in Brooklyn, which hosts solo exhibitions for artists as well as seasonal juried exhibitions and sponsors a quarterly artist grant.

Gitte Maria Möller: Running away forever is live on project-gallery.com until June 30th, 2024. You can view the exhibition here. More of Gitte Maria Möller's work can be found on her Instagram @gitte_maria and on her website at https://www.gittemariamoller.com/.
